

COMMISSIONERS.

The Proposed Bureau of Commerce Voted Down.

PROGRESS OF THE "OMNIBUS" BILL.

Debate on the Breach of the Privileges of the House.

ANOTHER RECUSANT WITNESS

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19, 1875.

Mr. FERRY, (rep.) of Mich., presented a memorial of the citizens of Michigan protesting against the proposed Canadian reciprocity treaty. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. WRIGHT, (rep.) of Iowa, from the Committee on Finance, reported adversely on the Senate bill to amend and re-enact section 46 of the act to reduce internal taxes, approved June 6, 1872, and it was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. HAMLEN, (rep.) of Pa., by request introduced a bill to incorporate the Commercial Square Market Company in the District of Columbia. Referred to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Mr. INGALLS, (rep.) of Kan., introduced a bill to authorize persons unjustly deprived of their property in Utah prior to 1860 to bring suit therefor in federal courts. Referred to the Committee of the Judiciary.

Mr. SARGENT, (rep.) of Cal., called up the resolution of yesterday, providing that during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate. The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

Mr. BAYARD, (dem.) of Del., submitted a substitute for the resolution as follows:—That during the present session it shall be in order at any time to move to amend or to amend a bill, and that the motion shall be decided without debate.

THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB.

ITS SECRET MEETING ON THE LOUISIANA QUESTION.—THE RESOLUTIONS PROPOSED.—IMPELLED CENSURE OF PRESIDENT GRANT AND GENERAL SHERIDAN.

It now appears, despite the efforts to keep secret the meeting of the Union League Club, that the meeting was held on Monday evening, that the meeting was organized by the speech of a prominent Grant republican at the annual election of the officers, in which the President's course was boldly endorsed. Thereupon one of the democratic members of the club, Mr. Horace Barnard, rose to protest against this view, on the ground that not only every democrat and every republican, but that every upright citizen and every man should openly condemn the usurpation in Louisiana. The result was that a committee was appointed to embody the views of the club in a series of resolutions to be presented to the club on Monday evening last. This committee was composed of the following gentlemen:—William Orton, Le Grand B. Cannon, S. B. Vance, Levi P. Morton and Artemus H. Holmes. The first named four gentlemen agreed upon a series of resolutions, but Mr. Holmes, though a republican, was not quite so ready to whitewash General Sheridan and President Grant, refused to approve of the majority's whitewashing, and drew up a minority report. The majority report was drawn up by Mr. Orton.

THE DEBATE.

The discussion on Monday evening was confined to but a few members, and was, at certain points, very excited. The Custom House was liberally represented, and attempted to pass the resolutions presented by the majority of the committee, but because of the many outspoken independence of Mr. Horace Barnard, Mr. Artemus H. Holmes and other members, the effort was frustrated. Mr. Barnard, in a remarkably vigorous speech, denounced the course of President Grant and General Sheridan as illegal, arbitrary, and likely to support the free institutions of this country.

Mr. Dexter A. Hawkins recited the facts of the Louisiana usurpation, taking the ground that the State Legislature was not a legal body, and excusing the President's action on that ground.

Mr. Barnard tried to get the Congressional Committee's report read to refute this statement, but such confusion ensued that it could not be read.

The most elaborate speech of the evening was that of Mr. Dorman B. Eaton, who spoke of the propriety of the action of the United States to interfere in the affairs of a State, and to decide the legality of any body of men assembled as a legislature, or even merely claiming to be a legislature.

Mr. Eaton's speech was, in the main, an amplification of the views expressed in the resolutions submitted by the majority of the committee. The speech was received with great favor by the Club members, and was warmly applauded.

The following is the majority report:—Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS IN SUPPORT OF THE ACTION OF THE GOVERNMENT IN LOUISIANA.

The Republican Central Committee met last evening at Republican Hall, Thirty-third street and Sixth avenue, to express their sentiments in regard to the President's action in Louisiana. Colonel Joel W. Mason was elected Chairman for the evening, after which Messrs. Jacob M. Bathson, H. K. Phelps, G. W. Lyons, H. M. Rugles and Baker were appointed a committee on contesting the election of the President.

The following resolutions were then read and unanimously adopted:—Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

Resolved, That the usurpation of the powers and immunities of a sovereign State, under the authority of the United States, is a violation of the sovereignty of such State, and a violation of the rights of its citizens.

CONFERENCE OF THE MAYOR WITH THE DEPARTMENTS.

Conference of the Mayor with the Departments.

THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT.

Another Exciting Session

Held Yesterday

THE JUBILANT SCRUB WOMEN

The heads of the several departments of the city government met at the Mayor's office yesterday, by invitation of the Mayor. There were present: President Bailey, Department of Charities and Correction; President Perley, Fire Department; President Wheeler, Department of Taxes; President Wistulski, Department of Docks; President Stebbins, Department of Parks; President Matseil, Police Department; President Chandler, Health Department; Comptroller Green, Chamberlain Lane, Finance Department; Commissioner Van Noort, Department Public Works; Commissioner Swales, Department of Buildings; Superintendent Adams, Department of Buildings; E. Delafeld Smith, Counsel to the Corporation.

The Mayor said that he had called the Commissioners together in the spirit of subdivision 4, of section 23 of the charter, which requires the Mayor to be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city and laws of the State to be executed and enforced, and for that purpose to call together for consultation and co-operation all heads of departments. He desired, he said, to meet the heads of the departments for the purpose of receiving suggestions from them as to what would lead to the correction of abuses, and to the improvement of the several departments growing out of defective legislation. He thought that the interests of the people and of the city would be promoted by abolishing the practice which had heretofore existed of the heads of departments going to Albany during the session of the Legislature to procure legislation for their particular department, and that it would be a general waste of money and of the local government as a whole, and often conflicting with and contradictory to the general policy of the city.

He announced that he should adhere to the plan of calling the heads of departments together for consultation and co-operation in reference to the execution of the laws of the city and the State, and that he would call them together for that purpose at the City Hall.

There was a unanimous expression of approval of the purposes expressed by the Mayor and the heads of departments, and the meeting was adjourned.

Many suggestions were made by the gentlemen present, and the Mayor promised to call them together for consultation and co-operation in reference to the execution of the laws of the city and the State, and that he would call them together for that purpose at the City Hall.

The meeting was adjourned, subject to a future call of the Mayor, when the drafts of several resolutions to be drawn to meet the suggestions offered, will be considered.

THE BOARD OF APPOINTMENT.

ANOTHER LITVLY MEETING YESTERDAY.—THE SCRUB WOMEN JUBILANT.

The adjourned meeting of the Board of Appointment took place yesterday. The Mayor presided. The first question that came up before the Board was the subject of the bills of the Court House cleaners.

The Mayor said that he had a resolution which I will not cover the ground, which may be offered. I do not care to do it myself.

Mr. Mayor—Do you mean to offer it?

The COMPTROLLER replied that one of the members of the Board might offer it, and before it was offered he had had another resolution to present. He then offered the following:—

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized by the City Council.

Resolved, That it is not deemed expedient by this Board to authorize any further transfers of appropriations from one department to another, except as may be authorized